

A key part of the unique approach to development of a Bairns’ Hoose in the Western Isles is the partnership with the library service as part of our co-location in the Cromwell Street building.

The visualisations included below give a sense of how the spaces in the new improved Children’s Library could look and are helpful in giving a sense of what they could offer to any children and young people using An Taigh–Sholais.

Fig.1 - Children’s Library Reading Nooks

Fig.2 - Children’s Library Sensory Spaces

Fig.3 - Children's Library/An Taigh-Sholais Shared Seating Area